Being a Chaplain & Being with Others

Amsterdam-Athene, November 12th 2021

Dear All,

As you have been informed, the upcoming 17th Consultation of the ENHCC will take place between 11th and 15th May 2022 at the Orthodox Academy of Crete, near the town of Chania (Crete-Greece). The Network Committee has been working eagerly in organizing your stay on the beautiful island of Crete. You are very welcome! Along with this letter, you will find a preliminary programme and a call for contributions. The registration is to be done through the registration form and to be sent back to enhcc@olvg.nl. The Consultation will be organized according to the local corona rules and every participant is asked to have a Covid-safe ticket. The precise rules regarding Covid will be sent out in time before the Consultation.

We will celebrate the postponed 20th anniversary of our Network. We are very grateful to Fr. Stavros Kofinas, the first Coordinator of the Network, to offer hospitality again in the Orthodox Academy of Crete where the Network was founded in 2000.

We will explore the theme in several ways. The first way is through key-note speakers: Daniel Nuzum (Ireland), Kerstin Dillmar and Lars Björklund (Sweden) and Martin Walton (The Netherlands). The second way is by the presentation of the first results of the research on chaplaincy performed by chaplains in several European countries initiated by ERICH. The director of ERICH, Anne Vandenhoeck, will be with us in Chania. The third way is to learn from each other. That is why we attach with the invitation a call for contributions (papers on research, papers on good practices or workshops) to the participants of the consultation. If you are willing to submit a contribution, please let us know by January 15th, 2022 through Axel Liégeois: axel.liegeois@kuleuven.be. If your contribution is accepted you will receive a reduction of € 100 on the consultation fee.

You can find further details on the Consultation preliminary programme. Our meeting will start on Wednesday afternoon (May 11th) and end on Sunday midday (May 15th).

The costs (all-inclusive) are € 500 (members ENHCC/single room), € 450 (members ENHCC and partners of members ENHCC/in case of sharing a double room), € 600 (non-members ENHCC/single room), and € 550 (non-members ENHCC/in case of sharing a double room). When you submit your registration, an e-mail will be sent with information on how to pay. All-inclusive means: your room and all meals, the Consultation and the visits. We cannot offer extra nights before or after the Consultation. There are plenty possibilities to stay in hotels in or near Chania. Please register as soon as possible but before March 1st, 2022.

Given that Chania Airport is a destination for many European (charter)airlines, it will not be difficult for you to find flights. We would like to ask that you all book your flights so as not to miss any of the sessions. They are all important! Also, we suggest that you plan your trip immediately to cut down on the air fare. Transportation will be provided for those arriving on Wednesday May 11th from Chania Airport. If you fly to Heraklion you will have to arrange your own transport. Heraklion is two hours and 45 minutes to Chania and then another 30-40 min. from the Academy. Whoever flies to Heraklion will have to take a bus. See <https://www.oac.gr/en/epikoinwnia/topothesia-prosvasi/> and <https://www.we-love-crete.com/what-is-the-best-way-to-get-from-heraklion-to-kania.html>.

Finally, for members of ENHCC who wish to receive sponsorship for the Consultation from the Stavros Kofinas Fund, we ask that you mark this during the registration before March 1st, 2022. There are limited funds that will be divided accordingly to help you cover the cost of registration. As in the past, we are not in a position to cover travel costs.

With this letter, we would like to send our warmest and heartfelt greetings,

Sincerely yours,

Simon Evers
